SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

Undercover deputies located and arrested Derrick Raymond Brister in Colfax on Wednesday afternoon.

On April 8 at 8:45 PM, Placer County Sheriff's Deputies responded to the intersection of Galena Drive and Garnet Way on the report of a fight. When they arrived, they found Jason Paul Teubner, 27, a local resident, lying in the intersection. He was bleeding from numerous stab wounds to his head and neck. Teubner was airlifted to Sutter Roseville Medical Center where he underwent surgery for his wounds. Teubner is expected to survive. The investigation revealed Brister to be the suspect in Teubner's stabbing.

Placer County Sheriff's Department investigators and patrol staff had worked in a concerted and determined effort to locate and arrest Brister. On Wednesday, April 13, undercover patrol deputies staked out a location where Brister was believed to be staying. At about 1:35 PM the deputies spotted Brister walking through the parking lot at the location and arrested him without incident. Brister was taken to the Placer County Jail where he was booked on thirty thousand dollars of outstanding warrants and a fresh charge of attempted murder.
